Local News.

Bishop W. D. Chappelle came in to see us Friday morning, and paid his subscription for the Indicator.

Miss Daisy Sellers of Florence, was the accomplished guest last week of Miss Helen Aiken, on Oak Street.

Mrs. Rachel Caldwell continues quite ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Palm Smith, 1216 Henderson Street.

Mrs. R. E. Scott who has been on the sick list for the past two weeks, we are pleased to state, is up and out again.

Mrs. E. J. Hunter has returned home in Jacksonville Fla., after spending a week with Mrs. C. T.
Suber on Second St.

Master Alfred Whitehead stopped over night with Master Ellery Lopez on Oak St., while on his way to Jacksonville, Fla

Mrs. L. E. Brooks, who lives at the corner of Gervais and Pine Streets, leaves to-day for Asheville on a three weeks visit to her daughter, Mrs. C. T. Howell.

Misc Gertrude Brooks, sister of Mr. J. W. Brooks, has gone to Camden with her neices Margarette and Beatrice to have them visit their grand-father.

Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson are very happy over their bright little daughter, Carrie Frances, four weeks old. Grandmother Dreher is especially "wild" over her.

Subscribe for The Southern Indicator. It is the newest—newest when you come down to news—the newest colored newspaper in South Carolina. Now, isn't it? Don't be only a reader. Be a subscriber as well as a reader.

Both manager Morgan and editor Scott will attend the Knight's annual communication in Abbeville next week. Subscribers from everywhere attending should come prepared to take good care of The Southern Indicator.

Dr. A. Joseph Collins, our popular Main Street Dentist, leaves Saturday for Washington, D. C., where he will spend ten days.
He is just going for a much needed rest.

James H. Goodely, who meet with a painful accident, the fracture of a limb, by being thrown from his bicycle, is reported by his father Mr. J. H.
Goode, to be making splendid improvement.

Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Bowman in company with Rev. R. A.
Holland, Miss Maud Casen and her mother motored, out to Irmo last Saturday to the Joint Picnic.
Mrs. W. R. Bowman spent the week-end with relatives while the others returned the same day.

Mr. Claude Purvis, accompanied by Mrs. Purvis, dropped in at the home of editor Scott and spent the day with them on Tuesday. They appeared to have enjoyed their visit and the attention shown very much, and left Tuesday night for Asheville N. C. via Spartanburg.

Mrs. Sarah Walker, Sidney Park's organist, who is attending the Summer school at Orangeburg, came to Columbia to be at her post Sunday, and returned to Orangeburg Monday morning. Mrs. Walker is one of most accomplished women in Columbia. As a teacher, musician, and stenographer she is unexcelled.

We want The Southern Indicator to be eminently a news-paper, and a new news-paper; tell us, telephone us, and give us the news; acquaint us of what is going on in your community and your town. Tell us about the coming and going of yourselves and your friends and families.
Give us the news and we will give it to our readers.

St. Luke's Episcopal Sunday school will give its picnic next, Thursday July 29th. At Gei-ger's Spring. All members and friends are welcome to attend.
Fabrel P. Paul, Supt.

Miss Alberta C. Altee and Mr.
John W. Goodwin spent Sunday in Charleston, the guest of Mrs.
Altee's aunt, Mrs. L. T. Phillips.
They enjoyed the day to the highest visiting the different places of interest.

Friend Jackson of 918 Pine Street, is putting on these days a few "cues" that you read about occasionally. He will give another at his home Monday afternoon. Don't forget it.

The Sunday School Convention of the Columbia District will convene at Jones Chapel A.
M. E. Zion church, corner Sumter and Blossom streets, July 30th to August 2nd, all lovers of S. S. work are requested to attend. Rev. J. C. Lewis, pastor, Mr. W. M. Wallace Dist. Supt.

Mrs. Mamie McDaniel entertained delightfully a whist party of 30, at her home, 1100 Pine street, last Friday evening.
The Owens Orchestra furnished music for the occasion. Peach cream and cake constituted the courses deliciously served.

Our correspondents are asked to make their articles shorter.
Brevity is the soul of wit, some one has said, and especially is true when writing to a newspaper. If correspondents don't heed our warning, they must not get mad when we cut down their communications. Usually we get our longest articles from cities and towns where we get the least money. A hint to the wise is sufficient.

Death of an Infant

Little J. D., the 11 months' old infant of Mr. and Mrs. J. D.
Harrison died at half past eleven o'clock on the morning of July 12th. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. C. Scott who has known Mr. Harrison for more than 30 years. Mrs. Harrison had taken the little fellow to Ridgeway hoping to improve his condition but he grew worse, and died soon after they returned home.
